New books arrive in library for Nation's young readers

We have a slew of new books for young readers at the Sac and Fox National Public Library that has us very excited.

We can already tell the series of cheerleading books, Kick, Jump, Cheer! will be extremely popular. We have all six books in the series.

Young Oklahomans will grow to appreciate the set on Our Wonderful Weather. The books on Thunderstorms and Tornadoes can help you ace that next homework assignment.

Another four-book series, QEB Peek-a-Book Penguin, should be helpful for getting the younger set ready for school. It includes Colors and Shapes, Numbers and Counting, Ready for Reading, and Sounds and Letters. Another eight-book set is titled My Phonics Readers.

Young war buffs will enjoy the set of Military Machines that features Arleigh Burkes Destroyers, F-35 Lightning IIS, Ticonderoga Cruisers and V-22 Ospreys.

There's also a series on History's Greatest Warriors, including a book on Comanche Warriors.

Budding artists will love the Learn to Draw Favorites, including Finding Nemo, Tangled and NASCAR.

The library has also added a few arts & crafts magazines to our collection including Fons and Porter, Beads and Buttons, Quilter's Newsletter, Quilter's World, and Quilt. We have also ordered Lupus Now magazine.These are in addition to our regular magazines, including Native People, Oklahoma Today and National Geographic. Come and check us out!
