(2) “coercion” means -

(A) threats of serious harm to or physical restraint against any person;

(B) any scheme, plan, or pattern intended to cause a person to believe that failure to perform an act would result in serious harm to or physical restraint against any person; or

(C) the abuse or threatened abuse of law or the legal process.

(3) “illicit sexual conduct” means

(A) a sexual act with a person under 18 years of age that would be in violation of SFN Title 10, Sub-chapter 2a (Sex Crimes); or

(B) any commercial sex act with a person under 18 years of age.

(4) “prison” means a correctional, detention, penal or jail facility;

(5) “prior sex offense conviction” means a conviction for an offense—

(A) under this sub-chapter; or

(B) under Federal, another Indian Tribal or State law for an offense consisting of conduct that would have been an offense under this sub-chapter if the conduct had occurred within the jurisdiction of the Sac and Fox Nation;

(6) “sexual act” means -

(A) contact between the penis and the vulva or the penis and the anus, and for purposes of this subparagraph contact involving the penis occurs upon penetration, however, slight;

(B) contact between the mouth and the penis, the mouth and the vulva, or the mouth and the anus;

CRIMINAL OFFENSES

(C) the penetration, however slight, of the anal or genital opening of another by a hand or finger or by any object, with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person; or

(D) the intentional touching, not through the clothing, of the genitalia of another person who has not attained the age of 16 years with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person;

(7) “sexual contact” means the intentional touching, either directly or through the clothing, of the genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks of any person with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person;

(8) “serious bodily injury” means bodily injury that involves a substantial risk of death, unconsciousness, extreme physical pain, protracted and obvious disfigurement, or protracted loss or impairment of the function of a bodily member, organ, or mental faculty;

(9) “State” means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, and any commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States.

(10) “official detention” means -

(A) detention by a Sac and Fox officer or employee, or under the direction of a Sac and Fox officer or employee, following arrest for an offense; following surrender in lieu of arrest for an offense; following a charge or conviction of an offense, or an allegation or finding of juvenile delinquency; following commitment as a material witness; following civil commitment in lieu of criminal proceedings or pending resumption of criminal proceedings that are being held in abeyance, or pending extradition, or banishment; or

(B) custody by a Sac and Fox officer or employee, or under the direction of a Sac and Fox officer or employee, for purposes incident to any detention described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, including transportation, medical diagnosis or treatment, court appearance, work, and recreation;

but does not include supervision or other control (other than custody during specified hours or days) after release on bail, probation, or parole, or after release following a finding of juvenile delinquency; and

(11) “venture” means any group of two or more individuals associated in fact, whether or not a legal entity.

CRIMINAL OFFENSES

Section 239. Sexual Communication with a Minor

(a) It is unlawful for any person to facilitate, encourage, offer or solicit illicit sexual conduct, sexual act(s) or sexual contact(s) with a minor, or other individual the person believes to be a minor, by use of any technology, or to engage in any communication for sexual or prurient interest with any minor, or other individual the person believes to be a minor, by use of any technology. For purposes of this subsection, “by use of any technology” means the use of any telephone or cell phone, computer disk (CD), digital video disk (DVD), recording or sound device, CD-ROM, VHS, computer, computer network or system, Internet or World Wide Web address including any blog site or personal web address, e-mail address, Internet Protocol address (IP), text messaging or paging device, any video, audio, photographic or camera device of any computer, computer network or system, cell phone, any other electrical, electronic, computer or mechanical device, or any other device capable of any transmission of any written or text message, audio or sound message, photographic, video, movie, digital or computer-generated image, or any other communication of any kind by use of an electronic device.

(b) A person is guilty of violating the provisions of this section if the person knowingly transmits any prohibited communication by use of any technology defined herein, or knowingly prints, publishes or reproduces by use of any technology described herein any prohibited communication, or knowingly buys, sells, receives, exchanges, or disseminates any prohibited communication or any information, notice, statement, website, or advertisement for prohibited communication with a minor or access to any name, telephone number, cell phone number, e-mail address, Internet address, text message address, place of residence, physical characteristics or other descriptive or identifying information of a minor, or other individual the person believes to be a minor for purposes of illicit sexual conduct, sexual act(s) or sexual contact(s).

(c) Provided, that if the person violating this section is under the age of eighteen (18) and less than three (3) years older than minor victim, the alleged perpetrator shall be treated as a juvenile in need of supervision or juvenile delinquent pursuant to the Juvenile Procedure Code unless the Attorney General certifies them as an adult for good cause due to the alleged action’s seriousness, having been done maliciously, for profit or if the suspect has a prior juvenile or criminal conviction for a violation of this sub-chapter or of a Federal, Tribal or State offense that would have been an offense under this sub-chapter had the offense occurred in the tribal jurisdiction.

(d) The fact that an undercover operative or law enforcement officer was involved in the detection and investigation of an offense pursuant to this section shall not constitute a defense to a prosecution under this section.

(e) For purposes of any criminal prosecution pursuant to any violation of this section, the person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be within the jurisdiction of this Nation by the fact of accessing any computer, cellular phone or other computer-related or satellite-operated device within the Sac and Fox Nation, regardless of the

where the violator resides.

(f) Sexual communication with a minor shall be a Class II Felony, punishable by banishment for a period of not more than seven (7) years or by a combination of such fine, imprisonment and banishment. For purposes of this section, each communication shall constitute a separate offense.

[History: Public Law SF-SF-09-205, March 31, 2009; as amended by SF-15-29, December 11, 2014.]

Section 240. Sexual Battery of a Minor

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly and with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person to:

(1) urinate or defecate upon a child under sixteen (16) years of age,

(2) ejaculate upon or in the presence of a child,

(3) cause, expose, force or require a child to look upon the body or private parts of another person,

(4) force or require any child under sixteen (16) years of age or other individual the person believes to be a child under sixteen (16) years of age, to view any obscene or pornographic materials,

(5) cause, intentionally expose, force or require a child to look upon sexual acts performed in the presence of the child, or

(6) force or require a child to touch or feel the body or private parts of said child or another person.

(b) The fact that an undercover operative or law enforcement officer was involved in the detection and investigation of an offense pursuant to this section shall not constitute a defense to a prosecution under this section.

(c)(1) Any person convicted of any violation of this subsection shall be guilty of a Class II Felony, punishable by imprisonment for not less than Three (3) months, banishment for a period of not more than Five (5) years or by a combination of such fine, imprisonment and banishment, except when the child is under twelve (12) years of age at the time the offense is committed, and in such case the person shall, upon conviction, be imprisoned for not less than Six (6) months, by banishment for a period of not more than Ten (10) years or by a combination of such fine, imprisonment and banishment. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply unless the accused is at least three (3) years older than the victim.

(2) Any person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this subsection shall be punished as provided in this subsection and shall not be eligible for probation, suspended or deferred sentence and shall receive a mandatory minimum banishment of Five (5) years.

[History: Public Law SF-SF-09-205, March 31, 2009; as amended by SF-15-29, December 11, 2014.]

Section 241. Deviate Sexual Intercourse

- (a) It shall be unlawful to engage in any form of sexual act with an animal.
- (b) Deviate sexual intercourse shall be guilty of a Class III Misdemeanor.

[History: Public Law SF-09-205, March 31, 2009; as amended by SF-15-29, December 11, 2014.]

Section 242. Mandatory Restitution

(a) In general. In addition to any other civil or criminal penalty authorized by law, the court shall order restitution for any offense under this chapter.

(b) Scope and nature of order.

(1) Directions. The order of restitution under this section shall direct the defendant to pay to the victim the full amount of the victim's losses as determined by the court pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) For purposes of this subsection, the term "full amount of the victim's losses" includes any costs incurred by the victim for

(A) medical services relating to physical, psychiatric, or psychological care;

(B) physical and occupational therapy or rehabilitation;

(C) necessary transportation, temporary housing, and child care expenses;

(D) lost income;

CRIMINAL OFFENSES

(E) attorneys' fees, plus any costs incurred in obtaining a civil protection order; and

(F) any other losses suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the offense.

(3) The issuance of a restitution order under this section is mandatory and the Court may not decline to issue an order under this section because of the economic circumstances of the defendant; or the fact that a victim has, or is entitled to, receive compensation for his or her injuries from the proceeds of insurance or any other source.

(c) For purposes of this section, "victim" means the individual harmed as a result of a commission of a crime under this sub-chapter, including, in the case of a victim who is under 18 years of age, incompetent, incapacitated, or deceased, the legal guardian of the victim or representative of the victim's estate, another family member, or any other person appointed as suitable by the court, but in no event shall the defendant be named as such representative or guardian.
