

Laborer #2021-54 (STROUD) Under the Food Sovereignty, provides assignments, determines objectives and deadlines; assists in carrying out the functions and activities of the Program. Performs services related to food sovereignty, gardening, land improvements and care of the cattle. Complete assignments provided by the Manager and assist Manager in maintaining proper care of cattle including but not limited to feeding/nutrition, medical attention and/or obtaining veterinary care, security of holding areas/grazing areas, address and correct/cure any issues/situations under the control of the Manager that may be harmful or detrimental to cattle. Complete assignments in implementing necessary practices for planting and growing vegetation. Complete assignments in implementing necessary practices for land improvement including but not limited to weed control/cedar control, constructing new fencing as needed, repairing/replacing fencing as needed to improve the land. Must have basic knowledge of implementing land practices. Must have basic knowledge of livestock. Must have experience helpful to promoting the Food Sovereignty program for the Sac and Fox Nation. Must be familiar with issues and concerns pertaining to Food Sovereignty in Native American tribes.