Fed. Investigator Hired to Enhance Oversight and Compliance With NAGPRA

The U. S. National Park Service has hired a full-time investigator to enhance oversight and museum compliance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) for the first time in the Act's 31-year history.

Additionally, the Department of the Interior recently completed consultation with 71 Tribal Nations across the United States on improvements to NAGPRA regulations. Together, these efforts will further Interior's commitment to facilitate and ensure respectful disposition and repatriation under NAGPRA.

In July 2021, Interior announced the beginning of Tribal consultation as part of an ongoing review to update NAGPRA. The proposed changes to NAGPRA regulations, which will be made available for public review and comment in early 2022, would streamline requirements for museums and federal agencies to inventory and identify Native American human remains and cultural items in their collections.

"The repatriation of human remains and sacred cultural objects, and the protection of sacred sites is integral to preserving and commemorating Indigenous culture," said Assistant Secretary for Indian Affairs Bryan Newland. "Changes to the NAGPRA regulations are on the way and long overdue."

The proposed updates will incorporate input from more than 700 specific comments made by Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations (NHOs) during consultations. Key feedback from the robust consultation included:

- Strengthening the authority and role of Indian Tribes and NHOs in the repatriation process;
- Addressing barriers to timely and successful disposition and repatriation;
- Document and address requests of Indian Tribes and NHOs when human remains or cultural items are discovered on federal or Tribal lands before items are further disturbed; and,
- Increase transparency and reporting of holdings or collections.

"Repatriation is a sacred responsibility for many Native Americans. We hope our efforts to streamline the requirements of NAGPRA and invest in additional staff will lead to more instances of proper repatriation and reburial of Indigenous ancestors and cultural items," said NPS Director Chuck Sams.

In his new role as the civil penalties investigator, David Barland-Liles will explore allegations of museums failing to comply with the requirements of NAGPRA, present findings to the Secretary of the Interior, serve as a witness in legal proceedings as necessary, support the enforcement actions of proper authorities, and provide technical assistance to institutions and federal, state and Tribal agencies on how to comply with NAGPRA. by Mike Brown

Sac and Fox tribal member Rickey Cline, pictured above at the Sac and Fox Nation Veterans Memorial Plaza, was recently appointed to serve as the new Service Officer for the Sac and Fox Nation Veterans Honor Guard.

Cline retired as a firefighter and paramedic for the Pima/Maricopa Indian Community in Salt River, Ariz. He is currently a staff member at Black Hawk Health Center, and a resident of Meeker, Okla.

Cline is spearheading plans for a special program to recognize and honor Sac and Fox military veterans during a program targeted for July 2022 during the Sac and Fox Nation Powwow. He joins fellow Honor Guard Commander Sonny Masquat, Secretary/Treasurer Bud McClellan, and current active members Curtis Wakolee, Austin Grant and Paul Wolf in inviting all Sac and Fox military veterans to join the Honor Guard.

Cline submitted the following message for publication in this edition of the Sac and Fox News:

Greetings,

On behalf of the Sac & Fox Veterans, we hope you are well and staying safe. For those of you who have recently lost a loved one, our hearts are with you.

We are looking forward to better days ahead and are reaching out to our Sac & Fox Veterans. It is our hope to recognize our Veterans for their dedication and sacrifices at our upcoming annual powwow. It has been quite some time since we were able to visit and, we are planning accordingly.

If you are a Veteran and want to share your pictures, stories and/or military memorabilia, we would love to share your story. Please reach out to me if you have any questions or, if we can assist you. My name is Rickey Cline (U.S. Marine Corps Veteran) and you can reach me @rickey.cline@ihs.gov.

Police Chief Issues Statement On Jan. 8 Maintenance Bldg. Fire

by Sac and Fox Nation Police Chief Andrew M. S. Iffridge

On January 8, 2022 at approximately 10:25 a.m., Capitol Security was patrolling the Veterans Lake area when they were contacted by a concerned party who had observed smoke coming from the Sac and Fox Nation (SFN) Maintenance Shop Building located within the Sac and Fox Nation Complex.

Capitol Security promptly responded, notifying fire, police, and SFN Maintenance Dept. personnel. The fire quickly spread through the south side of the unoccupied building, prompting mutual aid response from Prague, Stroud, Kendrick, and Arlington Fire Departments, as well as, Lincoln County Emergency Operations Center.

After battling the blaze for several hours, the fire was extinguished and investigators were able to enter the building. The south side bay area appeared to be the most heavily damaged, with three vehicles being burned. Initial observations determined that it is believed that the fire possibly began along the west side of the south bay. Although, until an investigator's report is completed the cause is still unknown. But, foul play has been ruled out by the investigator at the scene.

SFN Police and Capitol Security Department Personnel remained on site after ingress/egress areas were secured to ensure that equipment remaining inside was secure until it could be relocated.

Quick response from SFN Maintenance personnel resulted in the rewiring of the SFN fleet fuel pumps so that the Nation's Fleet vehicles could continue to fuel up the following day.

Chief Justin Freeland Wood's Address to the Nation

I hope you all enjoyed a beautiful Christmas and New Year season. While we have been quite busy, I want to provide the Tribal Membership with some important updates on pressing issues facing our tribe in our continual battle for tribal sovereignty and invite you to a special event in April.

Many of you have seen posts on social media about the tribe's tobacco compact with the state of Oklahoma. The compact officially expired on December 31, 2021. This ended the formal agreement between ourselves and the state as it pertains to tobacco sales. While the business committee desired to continue the mutually beneficial agreement, we were met with an impossible offer from the governor's office.

The offer was "take it or leave it" and severely undercut our tribal sovereignty. I regret the problems that the lack of compact has caused for our tobacco partners across our reservation boundaries, however we must never agree to something that will harm our tribal sovereignty. I hope the compact can be resolved, but we may be waiting until new leadership enters the governor's office on the second floor of the Oklahoma Capitol Building.

United for Oklahoma is an organization created by Tribal Leaders of nearly every sovereign nation in the state. The organization was created in response to negative and false statements made about the positive impact being made by tribes across Indian Country. United for Oklahoma was successful in changing the popular opinion of tribes by engaging Oklahomans across multiple media platforms.

With the midterm elections including an election for governor occurring later this year, Tribal Leaders have again joined together to create Unite Oklahoma. Our goal is to unite all Oklahoman's by encouraging voter registration, voter education, and voter participation in the 2022 elections. The Sac and Fox Nation is a full participant in this organization and you will soon see opportunities to get involved. Together we can elect leadership who desires to truly Unite Oklahoma.

Recently, the Business Committee completed the use of 2020 Cares Act funds. Our desire from the beginning was to make sure that every Tribal Member would be positively impacted by the one time federal funds. In the end we sent four separate Aid checks to tribal members over the course of two years, so that you would have an opportunity to immediately help your household in this uncertain time.

We also completed multiple programs that helped individuals who lost their job due to the pandemic, small businesses that were struggling, farms and ranches hit the hardest, and homes that needed emergency water repair. We were also able to improve broadband infrastructure, upgrade multiple government facilities to make them more sanitary and safe, and provide hazard pay for employees.

We are determining how to utilize the American Rescue Plan Act federal funds that we received in 2021. We are curbe assessed against any museum that fails to comply with the requirements of NAGPRA. Barland-Liles will also work with law enforcement agents to support their work on criminal investigations that may arise from his administrative investigations.

“David is a proven leader and skilled investigator who has helped us strengthen our government-to-government relationships with Native American Tribes and I am pleased to have him serve in this critical role,” added NPS Director Sams.

Barland-Liles, a 33-year veteran of the NPS, joins in his new role after serving 25 years in NPS law enforcement. He served as the case agent of a distinguished team that successfully resolved the 1990 theft of Indigenous human remains from the museum collection of Effigy Mounds National Monument.

Among Barland-Liles’ many achievements, he was awarded the John L. Cotter Award of Special Achievement for Excellence in Archeology for his work during the Effigy Mounds investigation, and he was nominated by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Iowa for a Department of the Interior Distinguished Service Award.

rently utilizing them to incentivize vaccination for Tribal Members and employees through the end of March 2022; offering a two thousand dollar aid payment to those enrolled before June 2, 2021; and, offering up to ten thousand dollars for emergency water repair for Tribal Members anywhere in the world.

All of these applications can be found Online or by request. I hope these programs are helpful and help bring peace in a time of confusion. We are also investing two million dollars into our pow wow arena and camp grounds. I hope you will see the amazing upgrades when you join us for our first pow wow since 2019, this July!

Lastly, I am excited to invite all Tribal Members and the public to a special event at our Sac and Fox Chapel on Tuesday, April 12, 2022. The event is called An Evening with Ligonier and RBC: Featuring Dr. Stephen J. Nichols. Ligonier is a Bible teaching ministry started 50 years ago by Dr. R.C. Sproul.

Ligonier has had a profound impact on my life and has made me a better Sunday school teacher, Bible Study teacher, and overall leader. It focuses on teaching people how to properly handle the Word of God. I hope you will join me at 7PM for an evening of teaching, fellowship, refreshments, and giveaways. To learn more about Ligonier or Dr. Nichols, please visit www.ligonier.org. As always, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out by phone (405.240.0044), email or just stopping by. I look forward to seeing you in April if not before! May God bless you and continue to bless the Sac and Fox Nation. I appreciate your prayers and constant support.

Why the ‘nsn.gov’ Designation?

From time to time, a question has been asked as to why the Sac and Fox Nation uses such a special exclusive (and longer) native sovereign nation dot gov Internet designation and name:

The “nsn dot gov” (nsn.gov) designation carries with it more significant levels of legitimacy, trust, and authority than a commercial, “dot com” domain name.

“NSN DOT GOV” confirms that it is an official government website that has been certified, verified, and recognized by the United States Government.

Of course, commercial sub-entities and public political subdivisions of tribal government may also use a commercial dot com designation for commercial-oriented purposes.

SAUK LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT
PHILOSOPHY

Indians are born speaking our languages. For some of us, they lie dormant within our bodies. They are looking for a way out. God gave us these beautiful languages. All of us hold them in a sacred manner within. There is no such thing as an Indian person who cannot speak Indian.

Our language programs find these languages within our bodies. They bring them out through our mouths and deliver them to their rightful resting places within our hearts.
