

Fallen Veterans Remembered With Memorial Day Salute

by Mike Brown
The Sac and Fox Nation Veterans Honor Guard, and others in attendance, remembered and honored fallen United States military veterans with ceremonies conducted May 25 at the Sac and Fox Cemetery and the Sac and Fox Veterans Memorial.

Members of the Honor Guard placed American Flags at the graves of veterans buried in the tribal cemetery, and the names of known fallen Sac and Fox veterans were read aloud by tribal member and U. S. Army Veteran Arlo Griggs. Sac and Fox Honor Guard Princess Taliah Switch placed a ceremonial floral wreath at the Sac and Fox

Veterans Memorial, located near tribal headquarters on Hwy. 99. Among those presenting words of remembrance and appreciation at the memorial program were Honor Guard Member and Tribal Elder Francis Grant, Honor Guard Commander Norwood ‘Sonny’ Masquat, Sac and Fox Nation Second

Chief Audrey Rose Lee and Sac and Fox Nation Secretary Jacklyn King. Members of the Seminole Nation Honor Color Guard conducted a gun salute, and presented the playing of ‘Taps.’ The Sac and Fox Honor Guard Auxiliary served lunch and supper in the Sac and Fox Community Bldg., and an evening of Gourd Dancing was led by: Head Singer Dwayne Tofpi, Arena Director Jaime Cervantes and Master of Ceremonies Francis Grant. The evening activities also included the crowing of 2019-2020 Honor Guard Princess Taliah Switch of Norman, who has also served as princess during 2018-2019.

Justin Freeland Wood Elected as Sac and Fox Nation Principal Chief in Primary Election Win

by Mike Brown
In the June 1, 2019 Primary Election, Sac and Fox Nation voters elected Justin Freeland Wood, of Shawnee, Okla., to a four-year term as principal chief. Wood won the principal chief’s post after receiving over 50 percent of the total votes cast in the Primary. Wood received 216 votes to prevail over incumbent Principal Chief Kay Rhoads, who received 58 votes; incumbent Second Chief Audrey Rose Lee who received 96 votes; and, Zachary Linn Butler, who received 33 votes.

Wood served in the Oklahoma State House of Representatives from 2012-2016. He was the first, and is still, the only Sac and Fox Nation tribal member elected to public office anywhere in the United States. He is married to Olivia, and they have four children: Joscelyn, Everett, Finley, and Harrison. The newly-elected principal chief told the Sac and Fox News, “I’m eager to get started. The Sac and Fox Nation has a bright future, and it starts now. We have such a wide range of gifted tribal members and I encourage you to step up and offer your expertise as we move forward.” “The time for standing still has ended. Our Business Committee will be holding itself accountable to all tribal members. I will be offering ideas and plans to generate revenue and create new industry and jobs. We will create partnerships with our career techs and colleges and universities to provide clear paths for tribal members striving for new career opportunities.” “I am seeking guidance and wisdom from our elders and new ideas from all tribal members. We will be bold and decisive and reach greater heights together.”

(Editor’s Note: At news deadline, an installation ceremony for the new principal chief was set for Wednesday, June 26 in the Sac and Fox Nation Community Building. Photos from the installation ceremony will be published in the August edition of the Sac and Fox News.)

Construction of Transportation Bldg. to Begin July 8 in Stroud

Construction is set to begin July 8, 2019 on the Sac and Fox Nation’s new transportation facility. The center will also house the Elders Program and the Nation’s Veterans Honor Guard. The public transportation facility includes a state-of-the-art design by using modern construction methods and the latest technologies. Safety, security, and energy-efficient equipment have been incorporated into the design. The tribal project manager is Randle Carter. The architect for the project is Studio 45 Architects of Tulsa, Okla. Construction of the approximately 12,000 - square foot facility will be performed by Lambert Construction Company of Stillwater, Okla., at a cost of $3,690,000.00. Federal transportation funds are being used for the construction. The anticipated completion date is June 1, 2020. Preliminary site preparation has been completed and includes the property title examination, environmental assessment, release of existing easement, 4-pin land survey, soil testing, and geothermal test wells. Upgraded electrical service and a 6-inch water line with 2 fire hydrants have been installed. The building design is Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) compliant and contains 2 above-ground storm shelters with a capacity of 150 persons. Included in the center, is a covered open-air porch area for relaxing, reading or visiting, as well as, a covered vehicle passageway to drop-off passengers. In 1995, the Sac and Fox Nation purchased the 2.5-acre tract of land, located 1/4-mile south of US 66 on SH 99 in Stroud. The former oil company building, which housed the tribe’s veterans and elders programs, was destroyed by fire in 2013. “Representatives from the tribal elders group and veterans honor guard provided important participation and vital input and ideas into the planning and design of the facility to create a comfortable and welcoming atmosphere for members and visitors,” said Tribal Project Manager Randle Carter.

Principal Chief Kay Rhoads Address To The Nation

It has been my honor to serve as the Principal Chief of the Sac and Fox Nation for the past four years. Serving as a tribal leader requires compassion, understanding, resilience, courage, vision, knowledge, the ability to compromise and work as a team. I hope I have exhibited some if not all of these traits as I led our Nation. The role of the Principal Chief is that of a leader, not a manager. It requires setting a goal and having a vision for the Nation. These two things are then shared with the staff to ensure programs are properly managed to meet the needs of our tribal members. This position serves the Sac and Fox people but is also a voice for all tribal nations. This is evident by the past history of the tribe’s leadership in taxation of car tags, tribal court and self-governance as we led the way for other tribes to exercise their sovereignty. Any action taken by Sac and Fox has a direct effect on all tribal nations. The actions and leadership of a tribal leader should be and is a reflection of tribal government leaders everywhere. As I leave the office of Principal Chief, I want to note some of the accomplishments achieved during the last four years by this (Continued on Page 19)

Why the 'nsn.gov' Designation?

From time to time, a question has been asked as to why the Sac and Fox Nation uses such a special exclusive (and longer) native sovereign nation dot gov Internet designation and name:

The "nsn dot gov" (nsn.gov) designation carries with it more significant levels of legitimacy, trust, and authority than a commercial, "dot com" domain name.

"NSN DOT GOV" confirms that it is an official government website that has been certified, verified, and recognized by the United States Government.

Of course, commercial sub-entities and public political subdivisions of tribal government may also use a commercial dot com designation for commercial-oriented purposes.

EDUCATION NEWS FOR JULY

By Barbara Ramos, Education Director Sac and Fox Nation

- A thought-provoking quote for this month: “The snake which cannot cast its skin has to die. As well, the minds which are prevented from changing their opinions; they cease to be mind.”

-Friedrich Nietzsche.

JOM Education/Fun Day will be held on July 12, 2019 at the Community Building. The tentative agenda is as follows:

 - 10 a.m. - Registration/T-shirts
 - 10:10 - Round Dance
 - 10:15 - Welcome
 - 10:25 - Games: Archery Tag for older students. Puppets, Freeze Dance and Playground Game for younger students
 - 11:10 - Motivational Speaker (tentative)
 - 11:30 - Lunch, Hot dogs, chips, fruit, drinks and cookies
- Noon - Lil Mike Bone Entertainment (he was here in 2017 and the kids enjoyed him)
 - 2: p.m. - Clean up

Parents/Guardians will be required to complete and sign a Waiver form upon registering their child/children. Please make sure you provide staff with a good telephone number in the event your child/children have an accident or become sick.

Jean Lynam and I attended the Tribal REACHE Forum held at East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma on May 14th. This was the first Tribal Forum on Attainment and Success of American Indian (A/I) students. Those in attendance worked in groups to answer questions about what activities, resources and ser- vices would help to foster the retention and success of freshman A/I students to reach specific milestones in their college career.

- Through the NASNTI HERITAGE Program they are looking at creating a perfect or nearly perfect Sovereignty Center or American Indian Cultural Center for tribal students. The different groups basically came up with a lot of the same ideas that we felt would be beneficial toward creating the type of environment that would help tribal students better assimilate into college life thus building the retention base.
- The National Indian Education Association (NIEA) is currently working on a project with the Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) to build capacity for both improving and creating Native Language Immersion Programs in schools across the United States. To accomplish this the NIEA will collaborate with local Native education partners that have a deep level and expertise about Native education at the state level.
- According to NIEA teacher shortages are pervasive in Native schools across the country. As part of their commitment to improve educational opportunities for Native students, NIEA has developed the first-ever online job board where schools representing hundreds of tribal communities can post employment opportunities available across the United States. If you know any individuals who are teachers and looking for a teaching position encourage them to check out the – NIEA Job Board.
- The Education Department recently received a copy of the National Indian Education Study (NIES). This study was designed to describe the condition of education for American Indian and Alaska Native students in the United States. NIES is under the direction of the National Center for Education Statistics through the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) on behalf of the U.S. Department of Education’s Office of Indian Education (OIE). NIES is authorized under several Executive Orders with the latest being Executive Order 13336, American Indian and Alaska Native Education (2004).
- The NIES study provides more in-depth reporting on the achievements and experiences of American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) students in grades 4 and 8. This program provides tribal leaders, educators, policy makers, and researchers with reliable and accurate data regarding the education of AI/AN youth.
- The report focuses on two major concerns that have been raised during the first decade of NIES:
- What contextual factors are associated with higher- and lower-performing AI/AN students?
 - How do AI/AN students see themselves in terms of their Native languages (may be referred to as Heritage, Indigenous, Treasure, and/or Amerindian languages), culture, and aspirations for the future?
- If anyone is interested in seeing/reading the report the report release site is: <http://nces.ed.gov/nationsreportcard/nies>. You may download copies of the most recent NIES report (The National Indian Education Study: 2015).

The report provides a lot of good information on factors associated with higher-and- lower performing AI/AN students.

While going through some files, I happened to find the following article written by the Muscogee Creek Nation. I thought it was rather inspirational and wanted to share it with others:

SUCCESS IS YOUR CHOICE

Your success is not a matter of chance: it is a matter of your choice. It is not something you wait for but rather something you achieve with effort and ambition. Success doesn’t turn up in this world until you achieve your goals for success.

You can choose to be ambitious. Stop to think about your career choice. When you realize what your goals are, you stop chasing rainbows and you start to work digging gold. Decide now that you really want to achieve your goals. Doors open when you’re the one with yourself.

If you really want to succeed in this world, look for the circumstance you want and, if you can’t find them, make them. Your opportunities for success are all around you. If you look hard enough, you will find them.

The great opportunity in your life is where you are right now. Every situation, properly perceived, can become an opportunity for you. First, say to yourself what you would be. Then, do what you have to do. Success is right in front of you.

The deadline date for RAP and DOI College Applications to be submitted for the fall 2019 semester is June 30th. If you do not have all of the required documents readily available, please submit the application(s) along with whatever documents you have. Remember educational grants are based upon first-come, first-served basis. These documents are entered into a data base and we can readily identify those students who will more than likely be awarded an educational grant.

403 Votes Cast in Sac and Fox Nation June 1 Primary Election

My name is Don Abney, and I am running for the Second Chief position. I started work for the Sac and Fox Nation in 1985, on the day after Pow-Wow. I also served 6 years as Principal Chief, 1997-2003. I offer experience in every phase of our Nation.

My opinion is: We need to know where we, as a Nation, hold our priorities, business or education. I think we need to start with education to bring our children up to be competitive with other races for educated jobs.

Our grounds here at headquarters need attention to perhaps establish a town here. We have no tribal residences established here.

Not-in-trust properties are still a problem. Stroud property is being pushed for a casino. Chandler property is not discussed. It holds enough acreage to establish a destination casino.

Cushing residents still need a community building established there. This Nation has opportunities not yet explored or discussed for possibilities.

I am asking for your vote, so I can help in all our problem solving. You need to vote.

It is your right and privilege.

Thank you,
Don Abney

SAUK LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT PHILOSOPHY

Indians are born speaking our languages. For some of us, they lie dormant within our bodies. They are looking for a way out. God gave us these beautiful languages. All of us hold them in a sacred manner within. There is no such thing as an Indian person who cannot speak Indian.

Our language programs find these languages within our bodies. They bring them out through our mouths and deliver them to their rightful resting places within our hearts.

July 2019 Quotes

Martin Luther King said, "I have a dream." But we, Indians, didn't have a dream, we had reality.
Ben Black Elk, Oglala Lakota, (1899-1973)

The Great Spirit is everywhere; he hears whatever is in our minds and our hearts, and it is not necessary to speak to him in a loud voice
Black Elk, Oglala Lakota, (1863-1950)

When a man does a piece of work which is admired by all, we say that is wonderful, but when we see the changes of day and night, the sun, the moon and the stars in the sky, and the changing seasons upon the Earth, with their ripening fruits, anyone must realize that it is the work of someone more powerful than man.
Chased-By-Bears, Santee Yanktonai, 1893-1915

Good Health and Wellness Grant Committee Gathers First Harvest From Community Garden

On June 4, members of the Sac and Fox Nation’s Good Health and Wellness Grant Committee, and other volunteers gathered the first harvest of potatoes from the Community Garden, located east of Black Hawk Health Center. Potatoes and onions were planted in the garden on March 18 after the Tobacco Incentive Program was awarded a grant through the Southern Plains Tribal Health Board and Oklahoma Area Tribal Epidemiology Center. The grant is titled, ‘Good Health and Wellness in Indian Country.’ Good Health and Wellness Grant Committee members pictured from left with the harvested potatoes are: Andy Warrior with the Sac and Fox Nation Land and Cattle Dept., Leah Carver, DeAnna Densman, Anthony Ramirez and Josh Nooner, all with Black Hawk Health Center and Merle Boyd Wellness Center. Not pictured is Sam Spang with the Sac and Fox Nation’s USDA Food Program. (Photo provided)

Robert Williamson For Committee Member

Aho, Thâkîhichiki. Hello, fellow Sac and Fox people. Kapanîkwê neteshitho. My Sauk name is Kapanîhkwe. My name is Robert Williamson. Nenemêthiwitho. I am fish clan. It has been an honor to serve as your Committee Member. I respectfully ask for your vote on August 31st. As Committee Member, I will continue to focus on enhancing the quality of life of all members of the Sac and Fox Nation. My goals have been to provide employment training opportunities for our people, protect our land, and create partnerships that will benefit the Sac and Fox Nation. We have made progress, and I am asking for your vote so I can continue working on these projects. These are some of the initiatives I have been focusing on:

- Building relationships and establishing memorandums of understanding with employers and employment organizations to ensure our Sac and Fox tribal members have opportunities for employment here at home.
- Providing job training opportunities. Already this year, I coordinated a free Class-B truck driving training and certification course for tribal members. This training was held at the Sac and Fox Nation and was a partnership with the Teamsters National Pipeline. Due to the immense interest in this course, I am working on coordinating additional courses so all tribal members who are interested have an opportunity to participate. I am also working on introducing other valuable training programs in various industries.
- I am meeting with local energy companies to make sure the Sac and Fox Nation has a seat at the table. We must protect our land and resources by monitoring projects that could impact us. I have already met with numerous companies to educate them about the Sac and Fox Nation and discuss our concerns. Further, I have advocated for the hiring of tribal monitors. As of today, 14 total monitors have been employed on several projects, earning a total in excess of $500,000. Currently, two monitors were still working on the Elk Creek Pipeline project, raising the estimation of this figure to more than $650,000. Protecting our resources and employing our people are of utmost importance to me. I will continue to advocate for tribal monitors to be hired on all projects located on our jurisdictional lands.
- Educating companies operating in our area about the Sac and Fox Nation and our events. This advocacy was important during the Diamond Pipeline project and resulted in a $6,000.00 donation from the Valero Corporation.
- I have worked to bring a $10,000 grant to the Nation to provide for two emergency responder certifications for Sac and Fox Nation tribal members. The Plains All-American Pipeline Company offered a first responder grant program for communities near the pipeline’s route. I assisted in applying for and securing this funding for the Sac and Fox Nation.
- I was honored to coordinate a trip to Tama, Iowa to obtain traditional seeds of corn, beans and squash. We have started a community garden with these seeds.
- I am assisting in the planning of land development projects, such as cedar clearing and prescribed burns, to ensure we have a sustainable land management program. We must continue to focus on land management and restoration to ensure our land is healthy for our children and grandchildren.

While I am determined to plan for the future to enhance the overall quality of life of the Sac and Fox people, I know it’s important to educate the next generation about our history, culture, and traditions. By honoring our traditions and proud history, we can continue to advance the Sac and Fox Nation together. I’m committed to working hard on your behalf. Please contact me and share your ideas and concerns.

Kewâwiyâmenepwa. I thank you all.

FDPIR Director Pays Tribute to Late Innovator Larry E. Foley

by Sam Spang
FDPIR Director
Sac and Fox Nation

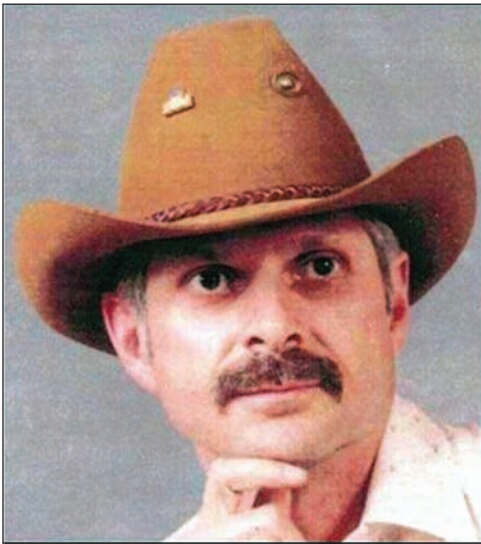

I hope you're all doing well, Ki-Men-Wi-Pema-Tethi-Pwa!! One of our long-time friends and a former veteran employee of the Sac and Fox Nation Food Distribution Program passed away recently. Mr. Larry E. Foley, born August 2, 1945 in Mt. Sidney, Virginia, passed away June 10, 2019 in Oklahoma City at the age of 73. (For full obituary, visit: <https://www.lehmanfuneralhome.net/notices/Larry-Foley>).

During Larry's employment with SFN, he was instrumental in the initial 1996 USDA Store Concept Pilot, which helped establish one of the first FDPIR stores in the United States right here at the Sac and Fox Nation Main Tribal Complex. Additionally, once the store was established in the early 2000s, Larry blazed forward and helped deploy a barcode scanning system developed by Synchronics called 'Food Flow' that tracked store inventory and was used in conjunction with AIS.

This system helped create great efficiency with turnaround time at the check-out. Most notably, this was one of the first barcode scanning systems deployed by a tribal FDPIR program nationwide, pre-dating the barcode scanning functions of our current AIS database developed by USDA by approximately 7 years. Although we scrapped Food Flow after AIS barcode scanning features finally became available years later, we had already learned so much about the store concept, inventory control, and barcode scanning through Larry's endeavors and innovative thinking, at a time when dial-up Internet, pay phones, and cassette tapes were still a thing.

Larry was a good friend and mentor to so many at Sac and Fox Nation, and our Southwest Region (USDA/FNS/SWRO) that had the pleasure of knowing or working with him throughout his years of service to our community. He came to Sac and Fox Country around 1991, and made many lifelong friendships in our community. Larry was well respected and befriended by many who are now tribal elders today, who welcomed him with open arms into our camps every year during our Sac and Fox Annual Powwow.

Larry, for the most part, made himself right at home at Mary Lee Brown's family camp every year, just north of the main entrance. His camp duty each year was to haul water for the whole weekend. So, he bought a 50-gallon water tank he'd fill up and drop off without question. As many Sac and Fox families do during powwow time, he would make his rounds from camp to camp, visiting, feasting, laughing and sharing stories throughout the weekend. Larry knew many of our Sauk customs and protocols around the powwow grounds and moved about freely enjoying his time amongst the people during our homecoming.

Throughout his 23 years of service with the Sac and Fox Nation Food Distribution Program, Larry helped serve many, many families in their time of need with USDA food assistance, as the safety net of the Sac and Fox people and our surrounding tribal communities. He was always here to help those in need, whether our clients were just coming in to pick up their commodity food items or just needed to stop by for a good visit about life... Larry was an elder himself. He was always here with an open mind, a big heart, ready and willing to offer good words and solid advice when needed.

Larry will be truly missed. As we move forward, his legacy will live on through all of us at the Sac and Fox Nation Food Distribution Program, along with all the good memories he's shared with the members of our community. He was a dear friend of my mother, Janice Stevens, and all my aunts.

I can still see them laughing, joking and visiting at our camp during powwow time as our cook pots simmered over the open fire, gourd dance songs thunder on in the background. All while the aunts were nearing the end of their prep work with fry bread being carefully prepared, early evening and cooler temperatures easing in while family members begin to gather as the smell of fry bread fills the air, signaling to all that it's almost supper time.

Mr. Foley requested his ashes be scattered on his property, and that there be no formal service. As Larry travels on, we wish him a good journey as he joins his ancestors. May he rest in paradise... journey well Nikan (my friend)!!

Tax Liability Notification

What are the withholding requirements for distributions that are made per a Revenue Allocation Plan (RAP)? The first step is to identify the source of funds used for the distribution. Unless the source of funds is specifically exempt from taxation, the amounts that make up the distributions to tribal members are taxable.

Which funds get reported on Form 1099-Misc? Distributions could be derived from many sources, including the profits from a tribal business other than a Class II or Class III gaming operation, interest income on investments, or rental payments from tribal lands. All these payments require a tribe to prepare a Form 1099-MISC

When does a person receive a Form 1099-Misc, Statement for Recipients of Miscellaneous Income? If a person receives $600 or more in 1 calendar year from the same source, that amount must be reported on a Form 1099, and that Form 1099-Misc. must be provided to the individual.

It is only the amount distributed from NET GAMING REVENUE that is subject to withholding. The Internal Revenue Code provides that “Every person, including an Indian tribe, making a payment to a member of an Indian tribe from the net revenues of any Class II or Class III gaming activity conducted or licensed by such tribe, shall deduct and withhold from such payment a tax in an amount equal to such payment’s proportionate share of the annual-ized tax.” The amount to withhold is provided in Withholding Tables found in IRS Publication 15-A, Employer’s Supplemental Tax Guide.

If the Indian tribe anticipates making a distribution of any kind, the Indian tribe needs the tribal members’ Social Security number before the distribution is made. If an Indian tribe does not know a tribal member’s Social Security number at the time of distribution, the distribution is subject to “backup withholding” (at 28% in 2009). (Source: Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Indian Tribal Governments Frequently Asked Questions, Last Reviewed or Updated: April 22, 2013)

Per capita payments could affect any Tribal, Federal, State, and/or Local benefits you may receive or programs in which you participate. The Sac and Fox Nation encourage you to check with your tax accountant or benefit specialist.

NOTICE

Why does a W-9 needed to be submitted yearly?

If a tribal member receives income that is taxable, a 1099 must be issued for Tax Purposes. The W-9 also serves as a yearly address update.

Can the allotted minor payment be refused in order to have the entire per capita payment be deposited in trust? Yes, but in order to do so we must still receive a W-9 for the same reasons stated above. We would also need a written statement to that effect to be included with the W-9.

Tips Offered For Salvaging Documents

by Trisha Gedon, Agricultural Communications Services Oklahoma State University

Much of Oklahoma has experienced record-breaking rainfall, leaving much of the state under water. Many homes and businesses have been flooded or torn apart by tornadoes, leaving a wake of destruction and homeowners and business owners scrambling to recover important paper documents.

Cindy Clampet, Oklahoma State University Cooperative Extension family resource management assistant specialist, said it is possible to save important papers and books that have been damaged by flooding or rainwater.

“Despite living in a digital age, most all of us have important papers at home. Birth certificates, marriage licenses and titles for vehicles are just a few of the examples of important documents. Some may have a treasured book from their youth or even a family bible that has been handed down through the generations,” Clampet said. “For the best results, slowly dry papers and books. Wipe book covers with a solution of equal parts of rubbing/denatured alcohol and water.”

If you do not have time to clean and dry your papers and book immediately, put the papers and books in a plastic zipper bag in the freezer. This will help prevent mold and mildew. Place wax paper between the layers of papers or books so they can easily be separated when you are ready to clean them. When working on waterlogged books, place them on end with the pages separated. When partially dry, pile and press the books to help keep the pages from crumpling.

“Alternate drying and pressing the books until they’re thoroughly dry. This will help prevent mildew from growing,” she said. “You also may use a fan during this process to help the books dry faster.” Important documents damaged by flood water can be sprinkled with cornstarch or talcum powder to absorb moisture. Leave the powder there for several hours and then brush it off.

If you happen to have valuable books that are nearly dry, consider ironing the pages with an electric iron set on low. Clampet said this may be a tedious process, but depending on the value of the book, can be worth the effort. When completely dried, close them and use C-clamps to help them retain their shape.

“Keep in mind that even if your recovered papers appear to have dried successfully, they may disintegrate rapidly because of substances that were in the floodwater or rainwater,” she said. “In the event the documents start to fall apart, you may want to contact official agencies and start the process of replacing Social Security cards, marriage licenses, birth certificates and other important documents.”

Stroud Man to Serve Two Years for Death Of Officer Graves

by Mike Brown

Justin Henley, age 23 of Stroud, is expected to be sentenced to two years of imprisonment and a fine on July 25, 2019 after entering a plea of guilty to second-degree manslaughter in the January 24, 2017 traffic death of Sac and Fox Police Officer Nathan Graves.

Officer Graves died north of Stroud on Hwy. 99 when his patrol car was struck head-on by Henley who was attempting to pass another vehicle in a no-passing zone.

Henley was originally charged with first-degree manslaughter, but a plea agreement to the reduced charge was reached Friday evening, June 14 after a Lincoln County District Court jury was unable to reach a unanimous verdict in the trial.

Okla. Wildlife is Significantly Affected By Spring Flooding

by Trisha Gedon
Oklahoma State University
Agricultural Communications Services

Flooding across Oklahoma has been devastating for state residents. Flood waters have taken their toll on homes and businesses, but the wildlife population also has been affected.

Dwayne Elmore, Oklahoma State University Cooperative Extension wildlife specialist and Bollenbach Chair in OSU’s Department of Natural Resource Ecology and Management, said flooding has affected most all aspects of wildlife.

“While flooding has been detrimental to our state’s residents, some of our wildlife populations have been aided by all the extra water,” Elmore said. “Amphibians such as frogs will benefit from the heavy rains due to prolonged standing water in ponds and wetlands, which allows time for larvae to mature. Aquatic turtles also have been helped with the additional habitat that has been created. Unfortunately, the flip side to this is road mortality has been high in some areas due to increased turtle movement. Watch for increased numbers of turtles on the roads and avoid hitting them when possible.”

Flooding can be a boon or burden to fish populations. Flood waters can create important fish habitat and many fish benefit when the rivers run high. However, too much water at the wrong time can destroy fish nests, and fish also can get stranded once flood waters recede.

One group of wildlife that has been hit hard in the 2019 flood is ground nesting birds. Expect large declines in wild turkey in many areas of the state, which will have a big impact on turkey hunting season for the next couple of years. Elmore also said that although quail have been delayed in nesting, there is still time for them to have decent production this year.

“I don’t see much of an impact on the deer population due to flooding,” he said. “There may have been a few fawns lost, but the majority of the flooding occurred before most fawns were on the ground.”

One of the positive aspects of the excess water found in much of the state is the impact it has on vegetation. The vegetation is in great shape and will provide a lot of food resources for many species of wildlife throughout the summer months.

“Something else to consider is some wildlife has been displaced due to the flooding. Don’t be surprised to see wildlife in some unusual spots,” Elmore said.

July is Minority Mental Health Month

by Staff Writer,
Ed Abuyog, LCSW

Were you aware that July is Minority Mental Health Month? The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services cites a 2016 study of the Center for Disease Control identifying a few interesting facts about American Indians/Alaska Natives. American Indians/Alaska Natives are more likely to experience psychological distress, symptoms of depression which may include sadness, hopelessness, worthlessness and poor energy, and anxiety. From the ages of fifteen to twenty four, the American Indian/Alaska Native has higher rates of suicide. Adolescents in particular, are twice as likely to die from suicide compared to the general population.

What You Can Do:

(1) BE AWARE. Get to know signs that a loved one may be experiencing depression or other mental health symptoms.

(2) CONSIDER. Encouraged your loved one to seek help.

(3) ACT. Help someone make a call to schedule with us or let your health care provider know what you are going through and ask about behavioral health. We are here to help.

For more information, contact the Behavioral Health Department, educational and counseling services are available to assist in preventing and treating the impacts of violence, substance use, major stress, depression, grief or other mental health problems.

Indian corn, squash and beans are thriving in the garden west of the Administration Building by the Sac and Fox Nation Land and Cattle Manager Andy Warrior. (Submitted Photos)

Sac and Fox Land and Cattle Garden Is Thriving With Corn, Squash, Beans

In February 2019, the Sac and Fox Nation Land and Cattle manager broke ground on the west side of the Administration Building to begin preparing a plot to plant traditional Indian corn, white with purple specks and other seeds. It was first turned over with a 3-bottom plow, then a disc was run over it several times and then a tiller was used to break the soil down into a fine bed in which to plant the seed.

On April 22nd, 40 rows of corn seed were planted, along with 3 rows of yellow squash, 3 rows of Kashaw squash and 2 rows of Red Pole beans. From the 40 rows of corn planted, 28 rows made. A majority of the squash came up and nearly every bean plant came up. Even though all the rain that came through the month of May and June, the plants have survived.

Their growth was slowed for a little while but, with the recent intervals of sun and warm weather, they have really grown in the last 2-3 weeks. Some of the corn stocks have begun to tassel, the beans are vining and the squash plants have bloomed and are starting to make.

“We are hoping that the weather pattern has turned to where the sun is out more often, with an occasional shower. The plants would truly benefit from that and begin to make produce that could be enjoyed within a month’s time,” said a spokesperson.

Principal Chief Kay Rhoads Final Address to The Nation

Administration. Although we have not completed many of the goals I had envisioned for the Nation, we have completed some projects.

We have succeeded in getting plans and contracts signed to begin construction of the new Transportation Building and Elder’s Center in Stroud. It has taken six years since the fire that destroyed the building and dislocated the Elders but by next year the building will be a reality.

We have also secured an architect firm to design the much needed expansion of the Blackhawk Health Clinic. This expansion will allow all medical services to be housed under one roof, along with the addition of dental service, optometry, extra exam rooms and storm shelter/conference room. Future plans are to convert the Merle Boyd Center into a dialysis center. The design and construction should be completed by the end of 2020. An access road is being developed to connect Road 930 to Road 926 to provide alternative access to the clinic in the event of an emergency.

The Yellow Earth Center was created to offer an Early Head Start and Head Start Program for children from birth to 5 years of age. This program is operated by the Central Tribes of the Shawnee Area (CTSA) and complements the program located in Shawnee and Cushing. The Absentee Shawnee Tribe, Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma and the Sac and Fox Nation has operated the programs for several years and just last year closed the Center in Norman which was then reestablished as the Yellow Earth Center.

The CTSA Program is also constructing a new facility in Shawnee to replace the old building that was infested by mold. The new building will be opening in August 2019. The work began early this year and was constructed in approximately 6 months. It will accommodate 100 children. These projects were led by the CTSA Executive Director, Sherry Marsh.

The construction of the new facility was made possible through Sherry’s grant writing efforts and project oversight. The Sac and Fox Nation, Absentee Shawnee Tribe and Kickapoo Tribe owe her our gratitude for her perseverance and commitment for recognizing the problem and getting the facilities constructed in record time.

We have created a Land and Cattle Company, with several head of cattle. Land improvements have been made and after many years of trying to recondition the 80 acres across the road from the Sac and Fox Cemetery, the land has been cleared of brush, winter wheat was planted and cross fencing was built. The land around Veteran’s Lake now has new fencing which allows the land to be used for grazing. Several controlled burns have been conducted to help improve the land and cedar trees have been removed from much of our tribal lands.

The Blackhawk Clinic also got involved in the land development by planting a community garden and are producing home grown food. A small patch of land behind the Business Committee Office was prepared for the planting of our traditional food, corn, squash and beans.

For years, our people have been asking for help with cleaning and maintaining the tribal cemeteries. Three of our most utilized cemeteries, Sac and Fox, Hunter and Wakolee Cemeteries will be cleaned and expanded to address the needed burial plots and road improvements. Other cemeteries will be addressed as funding becomes available. The work on these three cemeteries must be completed by September 30, 2019.

At the national level, the Department of Transportation will be publishing new regulations to create a Self-Governance Department. This has been a long fought battle and as one of the Co-chairs of the Tribal Negotiation Committee, we are ready to have the final rule presented for tribal consultations after July 1, 2019. Last year at this time the tribal negotiation team walked out of negotiations with the Federal Department of Transportation due to lack of meaningful consultation of the negotiated rule making process.

On June 6, 2019, the full committee reached an agreement to submit our document to be reviewed by all tribes, then comments will be considered for inclusion before sending rule to the Secretary of Transportation and then to Congress for approval. This is a major accomplishment for Indian Country because it is the first Department that is partnering with tribes to help expand Self-Governance other than the Department of Interior and Health and Human Services that specifically services the BIA and IHS.

The Sac and Fox Gaming Commission and Casino has had the best review of their audit for many years. Last year we had nearly 100 audit finding and now we had only two that are being resolved. The NIGC auditors complemented the new management and Gaming Commission for their willingness to work as a team and make the necessary changes that make improvements to the gaming operations. We will look forward to positive impacts that can be made to grow our casino enterprise. We are now moving forward in the right direction.

There are several other accomplishments that are not included but have made improvements for the Nation. I hope the momentum for growth continues. We have recognized the need to expand economic development and have explored options to create a business venture in Illinois. This project, if follow-through is done, will make a complete change for our Nation and our future.

Another project that is proposed will create growth for our Nation is to construct a Regional Hospital at the Tanger site of the same magnitude of the Mercy Hospital in OKC and St. Francis in Tulsa. A medical center of this size will be essential to continue to support our people with more accessible and complete medical care. The hospital development will create a stronger economy for Stroud by the creation of more jobs, businesses and housing development. It will also help to retain the retired community that often leaves the area to be closer to full medical care facilities. This type of health enterprise not only creates diversity but allows the Sac and Fox Nation to be the visionary for the future of the Stroud area while creating a stronger economic base for our Nation that will help to expand our current services to all of our people.

The casino development that has been discussed for Stroud should move to the 70 acres in Chandler to access the traffic that will be created by the 150 – 400 truck parking area and fuel stop for the I-44 traffic. The state of Oklahoma has begun construction of the truck stop next to the Nation’s 70 acre tract. The number of trucks that will park at the new truck stop will increase the traffic at our newly developed casino and convention area. This will mean more revenue for our casino and with more acreage, will allow for expansion of a convention center and entertainment venue.

I had hoped to make all these ventures a reality but there is no reason the Nation cannot move forward. Don’t let our tribe remain stagnant any longer. We have started a movement, keep it going and continue to look and move forward.

I want to thank all the people who have supported my efforts and dreams. I also want to thank the many Sac and Fox employees that worked to help serve the Sac and Fox people. It has been my honor to serve as the Principal Chief of the Sac and Fox Nation. I wish success for our new Principal Chief, Justin Wood. He can be more successful if he can get your support to move forward. As tribal members, please be open-minded and look for solutions for the many problems that arise and focus on the positive rather than the negative.

Success can only be accomplished if we work toward solutions and, not be afraid of change. The Sac and Fox Nation belongs to all of us and we should all have the same goal: “to be a strong sovereign and independent Tribal Nation.”
